

Manager, Technology Transfer – Sun Care R&D

Located in our Ormond Beach, FL OTC manufacturing facility, the primary purpose of the position is to manage the Tech Transfer Group for R&D.

Essential Functions:

- Prioritize and direct the work for Process Development Engineers to insure commitments are met.
- Serve as a Process Development leader and resource for the R&D Organization.
- Plan technical strategies for the Process Development Group.
- Develop personnel, set performance expectations and coach to help achieve goals.
- Drive technological innovation within the R&D organization.
- Insure regulatory (GMP) compliance for the R&D facility.
- Participate as an effective member of several R&D product teams.
- Represent Process Development and R&D on cross-functional organizational teams.
- Update management on strategic direction.
- Manage budget including capital purchases.
- Staff Process Development group to meet work requirements.
- Maintain technical awareness of industry process development norms.
- Establish useful contacts throughout the technical community.
- Handle any other responsibilities or projects, as assigned.

Experience/Education Required:

- BS/MS/PhD Degree in Science/Engineering
- 8+ years of Technical Experience; preferably in a Process Development role
- Experience with meeting regulatory requirements, specifically GMP experience
- Supervisory experience.

To apply, please click on the following link:

<http://energizer.kenexa.com/energizer/cc/Home.ss?ccid=qwdUxy7NTNI%3D>

You want to apply to position # 22045. You will have to complete a profile before you can actually apply to the position.